

QASSP LEARNING

WRITING FOR LIFE

ESSENTIAL SKILLS TAUGHT EXPLICITLY AND PRACTICED WELL

LOCATION

Tully, QLD
Tully State High School

DATE

Thursday 20 January
2022

INVESTMENT

Members & Non Members
$319 (inc.GST)

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

With high-quality initial instruction, the majority of children can learn to read, regardless of diagnosis. But what about writing? Achievement of accurate, fluent written expression requires instruction and practice far beyond that needed for reading.

In this workshop, we look into ways in which current practice in schools can be geared towards getting all children to improve.

OUTCOMES

- ✓ Learn to teach students to read and write fluently.
- ✓ Gain background information on the processes of writing and research-informed strategies to deliver high-quality literacy instruction.
- ✓ Understand and implement the components of successful writing.

PROGRAM

8.00AM	Registration
8.30AM	Underlying Skills and Knowledge for Writing Participants will explore the critical processes and components that underlie fluent writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Orthographic mapping• Working memory• The Simple View of Writing
10.30AM	Morning Tea
11.00AM	The Survival List Participants will learn the 'survival list' of words that students need to know in order to become fluent readers and writers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Techniques to learn these words and how this extends to other words with complex patterns that students can teach themselves to further their understanding as word complexity increases.
12.30PM	Lunch
1.15PM	What About Writing? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Matthew effects in writing and how this can be combated• Muscle memory• Phrases, clauses, and sentences• Quality vs. Quantity• Dysgraphia
3.00PM	Close of Workshop

ABOUT LYN STONE

Lyn Stone is a linguist, author and founder of professional learning provider Lifelong Literacy. She is passionate about helping educators awaken linguistic curiosity in their students, using engaging tools and strategies based on scientific consensus and what constitutes best practice. The processes used by Lyn focus on guiding and transforming whole school communities into places of research-informed practice.

ABOUT QASSP LEARNING

QASSP provides quality and customisable learning for all stages of an educator's career. This is learning for the profession, by the profession.