

QASSP LEARNING

7 HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PEOPLE

A SNAPSHOT TOUR

PRESENTED BY QASSP ACACIA BRANCH

AN INVITATION

Take a two-hour tour of the internationally acclaimed 7 Habits of Highly Effective People program, in the company of members of your own leadership team and like-minded colleagues. This is QASSP Acacia Branch's annual professional learning event.

Habits are a powerful force in our lives, they help determine our level of effectiveness or ineffectiveness. This session introduces participants to the foundational principles behind this professional learning juggernaut.

QASSP Acacia Branch is committed to building the capacity of school leadership teams through:

- ✓ Quality, evidence-based leadership learning.
- ✓ Exposure to a shared paradigm for leadership.
- ✓ Opportunities to network with other schools.
- ✓ Providing a supportive and welcoming professional community.

THE 7 HABITS

Habit One: Be Proactive

Empowers participants to achieve exceptional outcomes through consistent resourceful action, breaking barriers by taking initiative, embracing change, and maintaining accountability.

Habit Two: Begin With the End in Mind

Guides participants to cultivate an outcome-driven perspective, enabling success in various endeavours by defining visions, setting goals, and aligning actions with desired results.

Habit Three: Put First Things First

Equips participants with strategies to eliminate inefficiencies and drive success by focusing on vital team goals through strategic execution, delegation, and effective planning.

Habit Four: Think Win Win

Empowers participants to foster high-performing teams through shared accountability, trust-building, effective collaboration, and productive relationship-building.

Habit Five: Seek First to Understand

Teaches participants to cultivate productive communication and mutual understanding within organisations by emphasising effective listening, accurate feedback, and collaborative problem-solving.

Habit Six: Synergise

Cultivates innovative problem-solving through leveraging diversity and collaborative decision-making.

Habit 7: Sharpen the Saw

Elevates effectiveness through daily self-renewal, preserving and enhancing your wellbeing, ultimately enriching every aspect of life with improved vitality and quality.
